All Together We Can: Manos Loizos Tribute – “The Road Has Its Own Story”

Departure: 14 September 2026, 1-day

Experience a unique moment of culture, emotion and social giving with our organised excursion to the great "All Together We Can" concert. This is not just a music event, but a leading cultural tribute to one of the greatest and most beloved Greek composers, Manos Loizos, held at the iconic Panathenaic Stadium (Kallimarmaro) in Athens. Departure: from Xylokastro, Kiato, Vrachati, Corinth and Isthmia. We combine your comfortable, well-organised transport with the magic of live music, offering a carefree journey straight to the heart of Athens. Come join us as one big group, sing the melodies that marked generation after generation, and support a shared, worthy cause at the same time.

Tour itinerary

Departure date: 14/09

"All Together We Can" invites the public to a special concert dedicated to Manos Loizos.

"The Road Has Its Own Story"

On Monday 14 September, the Panathenaic Stadium will fill with the timeless melodies and songs that marked generations, highlighting the work of a creator who wove music together with social conscience, political ideology, poetry and the history of this land. This year's great concert promises an evening of deep symbolism and powerful performances.

Performing, free of charge, in alphabetical order: Dimitra Galani, Giorgos Ntalaras, Vasilis Papakonstantinou, Miltos Paschalidis, Marina Satti, Eleni Tsaligopoulou.

Departure time: 18:00

Concert time: 21:00

Please note: this concert is performed in Greek and celebrates a Greek composer's work — background knowledge of Greek music and language will make the evening far more meaningful.
